

INTRODUCTION

WELCOME HOME TO YOUR LUMINOUS SELF, radiant human!

White light is sacred luminosity. It contains the entire rainbow spectrum of frequencies needed for healing and awakening higher consciousness. White light is divine medicine for the body, mind and soul, and the gateway into vast spiritual dimensions of peace and grace.

White light is the true light of our inner selves. It resonates with the spiritual guidance and divine intervention we need to find our way. We will all encounter darkness at various times on our life journey. The darkness in your journey may represent mysteries, challenges, pain to be healed, or potential to be accessed. The spiritual light can help you unravel the secrets that will help you heal and awaken.

As the light fills and heals us, we increase our clarity and are strengthened as spiritual channels. The light can then flow through us for the spiritual benefit of all beings.

The spiritual worlds ask only that you receive love and grow. There is no requirement to hold certain belief systems as all hearts are unconditionally welcomed into the spiritual fold. Such unconditional love is a true refuge and sanctuary. It recharges your heart, mind and soul. It is your friend, your guide, your guardian and protector.

May this deck connect you to the infinite beauty of the luminous divine dimensions, which your heart recognises as your spiritual homeland. May such connection fuel you with strength and joy to embrace your unique and precious human journey, radiating your light to bless your life and inspire all beings with a remembrance of their true and peaceful origins.

May your heart become a perpetual altar of grace, and may you know the spiritual truth that brings you comfort, confidence and courageous creativity on your life journey.

*With love and blessings,

HOW TO PLAY WITH YOUR WHITE LIGHT ORACLE

You can work (or play!) with this deck for readings for yourself or others. You can use it in groups, you can create altar offerings with the cards, or place them on your nightstand or under your pillow for healing whilst you sleep. You can travel with them more readily in this pocket-size edition too. You can work with the cards as you feel is best for you. Below are some suggestions to get you started.

BLESSING

When you first use the deck, or at any time you feel inclined, you can perform an additional blessing for the deck. This helps clear energy, deflect distractions and connect you to the oracle in a more mindful way. Doing so can amplify your ability to derive meaning and relief from your oracle readings.

To bless the deck, take a moment to centre yourself. Focus on your breathing and allow your day-to-day worries to recede as you become present. You are about to enter sacred space for a reading. Acknowledge this in your heart.

When you feel present and centred, you can imagine your innermost heart is shining with a white light that contains all the colours. It sparkles and glows. This white light within your heart is a gateway into the infinite divine dimensions of unconditional love, light and peace. Sense the beauty of this, that you are always connected to these blessed inner spiritual places.

Now, hold your cards (in the box, if that's easier) over your heart and with this booklet in your other hand, read this prayer aloud:

Through the spiritual dimensions of unconditional love, wisdom and grace, may this deck and all uses of it be blessed. I ask for clarity, relief and realisation for myself and for all beings for the greatest good. Please bless and guide all work with this oracle for the most beautiful outcomes.

So be it.
